"It is hereby notified for the information of the public that my senior uncle Malaji died leaving a registered will by virtue of which myself, i.e., Hemaji, my younger brother Nathmal and minor brother Phoolchand has to take his properties in three shares and that my son minor Saganlal has to get his marriage expenses out of the deceased's properties. Ever since the death of the said uncle, I have been looking after the entire management being the eldest member of the family and as the guardian of the minors also.

Now, my younger brother Nathmal has begun to squander the properties. It is therefore requested that no body should advance any loans to the said younger brother Nathmal nor pay any amount, into his hands, due to us under the bonds without my instructions and knowledge till the matters come to a settlement.
